1. Because they were caught in a jam.
2. Geeta and Aman should have put the heavier vegetables, like potatoes and onions, at the bottom of the bag and the lighter, softer ones, like tomatoes and leafy greens, on top. This way, the delicate vegetables wouldn't get squashed!
3. You should put soft and delicate vegetables like tomatoes, leafy greens, and bananas at the top of the bag to prevent them from getting squashed by heavier items like potatoes, onions, and pumpkins. A watermelon is heavier than a pumpkin. A lettuce leaf or a coriander bunch is lighter than a tomato
